

“Let Us Be Glad!”

Isaiah 25:6-9

Dan Rifenbark was raised in a Christian family and made a profession of faith when he was a child, however, he wasn't truly converted to Christ until he was an adult. As a pilot, he was stationed in Cleveland, OH with Express Jet Airlines when a friend told him about a church that he might like. He attended Parkside Church where the Spirit of God opened his ears to hear the message of salvation through Jesus Christ alone. Since then God has called Dan to Trinity Baptist Church in Globe where he has pastored for the last three years.

Dan is a native of Tucson, he attended the University of Arizona and now he is completing his seminary training at Gateway Seminary. He is married to Carrie and they have one son, Sam.

“Finding Comfort in the Local Church”

Psalm 73

Pastor John Skaggs

I attended Arizona College of the Bible while Pastor of First Baptist Church in Miami Arizona. I was there for two years then, with the help of many others, founded Sovereign Grace Baptist Church in 1982. I served for 23 years, moved away for 8, and came back in 2013 to serve SGBC once again. My years at Sovereign Grace have been a blessing beyond what I could have asked or thought possible. My wife and I were High School Sweethearts and have enjoyed 45 years of marriage. We have three children and seven grandchildren.

“When the wrath of God Is a comfort!”

1 Peter 3:8–17; Romans 12:17–19

Jason Crothers Pastored Central Heights Baptist Church in Globe for five years. Prior to moving to Globe, he ministered in Dallas, Texas for ten years.

It was at the age of seventeen that the Lord graciously called Jason to himself and the gospel ministry. Since then he has earned a Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) in pastoral ministry and a Master of Theology degree (Th.M.) with concentrations in theology and cross-cultural ministry from Dallas Theological Seminary.

Jason is a full member of the Evangelical Theological Society. Jason is a native of Michigan and now resides in Good Year AZ with his beautiful wife and son. His passion for ministry is summed up by what the apostle John expressed, “I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth” (3 John 1:4).

“To The Praise of His Glory”

Ephesians 1:1-14
Elder Mike Leonard

In 1992 I sensed an earnest desire to preach and teach the Word of God. Believing that this desire had come from God I began to seek training. Through God’s providence I was led to Pastor

Blake Lasslett and then to Pastor John Skaggs, both of whom taught and mentored me in preparation for the work of Gospel Ministry. God began to open doors for ministry throughout the area of Globe, Miami, and Young. In time I was asked to come to Wheatfield's Baptist Chapel as Interim Pastor, a position I held till God directed me to assist Pastor John at Sovereign Grace Baptist Church.

When Pastor Skaggs moved away we held church in our home. Eight years later, following the return of Pastor Skaggs, my wife and I joyously rejoined Sovereign Grace. I am currently serving as an Elder at Sovereign Grace teaching and playing the piano for the worship service. I am also studying at Ekklesia Seminary in order to better feed the flock of God that is before me.

“My Sabbath Rest”

Matthew 11:28-30

Nick Jones has served as the pastor of Maranatha Baptist Church since

May 2016. He grew up in Arizona and spent his early years as a member of the LDS (Mormon) Church, until he moved to NYC to attend acting school. While in New York, Nick became involved with various Christian churches, and God granted him repentance and faith. With a new heart, he no longer desired to pursue acting but rather to serve God. Nick has served in several churches around the valley as a youth pastor, music director, and church planter. He is currently studying Theology and Pastoral Ministry at Christian Leaders Institute and working towards certification in Biblical counseling through ACBC. Nick resides in Globe with his lovely wife Laura and their daughters, Kate and Samantha.
